Spiced with Lappish inspiration...

- In our restaurant, which seats approx. 80 people you can order ordinary dishes as well as more sophisticated meals.
- Overlook the river Vindelälvens blue water while you having breakfast
- In the winter you can visit our igloo across the river
- There we recommend a cool drink in the igloo, served in ice glasses carved by hand.
- Give your dinner a chance to settle, relaxing with your friends in our popular pub.

- The name Sorsele probably comes from the Sami word suorge meaning arm of the river. The town is situated on a outcrop in the river Vindelälven.
- Today Sorsele is a town of 1400 inhabitants with all the services usually associated with larger towns. Shops, banks, petrol stations, repair garages, a hotel, camping site, hostel, bus and train station, post office, liquor store, library, sports hall, swimming baths, illuminated ski track, chemist's, health clinic, dentist's, police station, nursery school, high school, home for the elderly.....actually Sorsele has practically everything you need!
